Business Standard

Statspeak: Urban Palate

Str Team October 24, 2016 Last Updated at 00:02 IST

Lunch is taking over dinner in popularity for dining out during the weekends while luxury standalones are giving hotels stiff competition with their increasing popularity, says a study carried out this year and titled "How India eats out". The study, conducted by table reservation service Dineout, also suggests urban India wants a taste of something that's not run-of-the-mill

